Skills

Language: Native Mandarin speaker, fluent in written and spoken English.

Computer skills: Microsoft Word, Excel, PowerPoint, Google Docs, Photoshop, Final Cut pro and Cubase AI.

Problem solving: Being a president of Walkative Project (2021-2022) means I need to cope with emergencies independently, such as get communication with artists and members when needed. Meanwhile, working out replacement of activity plan and letting every member know the situation is necessary for the operation of project.

Team work: Working in a group with two curators (2021, Shanghai) including how to assign work tasks based on our advantages and how to communicate with each other.

Communication: During my Equality and Diversity (EDI) spokesperson role (2021-2022) in RCA, I need to be the bridge between peers and tutor team to help students and tutors solving problems about equality and diversity.

Interests: Music, capable of basic audio recording and editing. Vlog, using camera to record daily life and editing the video pieces into one video along with text and background music.
